

When the voice of the Easter angel is stilled,
When the soldiers guarding
the tomb are gone,
When the women have returned to their homes,
When the fishers are at their nets again,

The work of Easter begins:

To bear the light,
To sing the joy,
To speak the hope,
To liberate the trapped,
To proclaim the peace,
To let Love transform,
To turn words into flesh again.

— Based on Howard Thurman's
The Work of Christmas
